Dear Educators and Senior Community,

The State Ballet of Rhode Island, our state's longest standing civic, regional ballet company, has announced its repertory and performance schedule for its 57th Performing Season!

We have some INCREDIBLE NEWS for you. This year, The State Ballet of Rhode Island will be performing Herci Marsden's annual holiday ballet, Coppélia in December and The Princess & The Pea in March at THE PARK THEATRE in Cranston!

After closing SBRI's 56th performing season to outstanding people's choice reviews and accolades, The State Ballet of Rhode Island looks forward to celebrating season 57! Not only will you be able see witty and enchanting ballets but also be able to sit in what was at one-time a film & vaudeville house built in 1924, The Park Theatre.

MORE GREAT NEWS! Because people of all ages are touched by a theatre experience, I am excited to tell you that our Friday 10am show in December and in March, our "Project Ballet in Education performance", is a PAY WHAT YOU CAN EVENT! Since 1960, SBRI has held the belief that people need to experience the arts in order to become aware of it and gain an appreciation for it.

Reserve your seats now for either/both performances offered this season. CALL SBRI @ (401) 334-2560 for the 10am shows

CALL The Park Theatre Box Office @ (401) 467-7275 for the evening or matinee shows
