

A Trilogy of Ballet, Music & Art

This spring, on March 29th at 10am, Artistic director Herci Marsden and The State Ballet of Rhode Island present an exciting trilogy of ballet, music and art at the historic Park Theatre in Cranston, RI!

This show features three unique one act ballet's all of which are Southern New England premieres. "Walpurgis Night" from Gounod's opera Faust was premiered in Rhode Island back in 1962. In this repertoire favorite, a celebration takes place on the eve of spring with Gods, Goddesses and Satyrs dancing an all-night ritual creating an evening of frenzy.

The premiere of "A Tale of Twelve Dancing Princesses" is a funny story ballet of which SBRI's resident choreographers hope to make children and adults chuckle with laughter while admiring an array of sparkling colorful costuming.

Also, the premiere of "The Colors of Love & Light" inspired by the paintings of contemporary artist Paul M. Cote is a fusion layering of dance, music and art!

Dates & Time: Friday, March 29 at 10am (1 ½ hr. show) Free & Easy Parking

SEATS: A PAY WHAT YOU CAN EVENT (Suggested price $10 per seat)

Reserve your seats now by calling Ana at 401-334-2560

"People of all ages are touched by a theatre experience. If you experience the arts, you will become aware of it and then you will gain an appreciation for it. "